

Join JASSA as it celebrates 25 years at its 2010 Matsuri!

Saturday, Oct 9, 2010 9-4:30pm

Water Garden Gems
3136 Bolton Rd, Marion, TX 78124-6002

Enjoy martial arts demonstrations, traditional Japanese dance and instruments and more!

Learn about Japanese tea ceremonies. Watch Karate and Kendo demonstrations, dance performances, and live musical performances with Taiko drums, the Koto and the Shakuhachi. Come to find out about taking classes yourself for the above as well as Japanese language classes, and future calligraphy and crafts classes available through Japan America Society of San Antonio (JASSA). Peruse through unique cultural items that can make great gifts that will be available in JASSA's silent auction (limited hours: 10:30-12:30 tentatively).

The “matsuri” (festival) will be held at the Water Garden Gems, which will also be hosting the 18th Annual Koi & Goldfish Show and the AGA National Goldfish Show.

Admission is free and guests to JASSA’s Matsuri will also be able to watch Koi shows and have access to other arts and crafts. Food will be available.

For more information on the Matsuri, please visit www.jas-sa.org or contact Myra at myra@jas-sa.org
